Data Transfers Outside the EU/EEA

Personal data is mainly stored and processed within the EU and the EEA. If data is transferred outside the EU or the EEA to countries for which the European Commission has not issued a decision of adequacy of data protection, we will take care of protecting the data for example by using standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission. Transferred data is processed only on behalf of Mandatum Life.

Retention Periods of Personal Data

Personal data of persons who have received an offer is stored for 3 years. Personal data of other potential customers is stored for at most 3 years. Campaign information (such as target group data) is stored for at most 2 years. Call recordings for calls related to marketing campaigns are stored for 2 years. Data on website visitors is stored for 2 years.

Profiling and Automated Decision-Making

Profiling refers to automatic processing of personal data which includes for example evaluating or predicting the interests or the behavior of a person. We use profiling for targeting direct marketing and online marketing in order to offer each person products and services that best suit their needs.

We use customer data, data from our partners and from public registries and data provided by the customer themselves for the targeting of direct marketing.

Targeting online advertising is based on online behavior: website visitors can be shown ads related to products and services whose pages they have visited before. The targeting utilizes cookies and is done through Oracle Eloqua, Adobe Marketing Cloud and Adform. You can control the use of cookies through the settings of your web browser. Please also note that preventing the use of cookies may impact the functionality of our website. You can also opt out of the targeting through the websites of Oracle, Adobe and Adform (please also note that this may also affect other advertisers using the services of Oracle, Adobe and Adform) and through the settings of your web browser. You can find more information about cookies from the privacy policy of Mandatum Life.

The profiling done in the context of marketing does not include automated decision-making.

Rights of the Data Subject

You have the right to access your personal data processed by Mandatum Life, the right to rectification, the right to lodge a complaint with the data protection authorities and depending on the conditions, the right to erasure, the right to the restriction of processing, the right to object to the processing and the right to data portability. You can read more about your rights and about how to use them in the privacy policy of Mandatum Life.
